Indian Pacific Train 1 night

A journey aboard the iconic Indian Pacific will whisk you between Sydney and Adelaide in comfort and style. Step onboard for an all-inclusive rail holiday you'll never forget. From the mountains to the sparkling coast, discover a world of wonders as you travel between these two great cities.

Leave Sydney in the mid-afternoon and enjoy dinner views as the Indian Pacific makes its way through the magnificent Blue Mountains. After a regionally-inspired dinner and all-inclusive fine wines, there is plenty of time for socialising with fellow guests in the lounge. Retire to the comfort of your cabin for a restful night's sleep as the train rolls onward.

Arrive in Broken Hill in the early hours of the morning and enjoy a choice of Off Train Excursions exploring the historic mining town's unique cultural and artistic attractions. Head back to the train for breakfast while you journey west and watch the scenery change from semi-arid scrub to the russet and ochre hues of the ancient rock formations of the Southern Flinders Ranges.

Arrive in Adelaide by mid-afternoon.

Gawler Ranges Wilderness Safaris

2 nights

The Gawler Ranges, 600kms to the North West of Adelaide on the Eyre Peninsula, is Outback Australia at its best. The diverse terrain changes from semi-desert to arid to eucalypt woodland, while the age old volcanic landscape is spectacular with its gorges and weathered rocky outcrops.

Gawler Ranges Safaris offer an amazing diversity and profusion of wildlife in numbers rarely seen elsewhere in Australia. The area has an extraordinary range of wildly beautiful outback country boasting contrasting colours of red sands and rocky gorges, blue skies and the glistening white of massive Lake Gairdner.

Visit a colony of wild koalas near Port Lincoln, before travelling through farming land to Wudinna and onwards into the outback to Kangaluna Camp. Begin your wildlife experience with an afternoon tour, expecting to see a number of kangaroo species along with emus and many birds.

The next morning enjoy a spectacular drive to Lake Gairdner which looks like a piece of Antarctica with its glistening white salt pan set in the red landscape. The red dunes along the lake yield many animal tracks, flowers in spring, interesting vegetation and birds. Photo opportunities are endless. Continue through the changing landscape to cigar shaped volcanic rock formations 1600 million years old.

Board a boat at Baird Bay for an unforgettable wildlife experience. Journey to a lagoon where you can watch dolphins ride the bow wave of the boat. Visit a resident colony of rare Australia sea lions and experience playing face to face with these agile and friendly mammals. Enjoy the magnificent coastal scenery on the journey back to Kangaluna Camp.

Great Ocean Road

Set amongst a 60,000 acre private wildlife conservancy, an escape to Arkaba's beautifully restored homestead is like staying with friends in the country.

An unrivalled journey along the awe-inspiring Great Ocean Road between Australia's southern capitals.

Australia's great southern land is packed with so much to see and do. With this three-day trip, you'll be able to tick off two states as we tour between Adelaide and Melbourne.

Wonder at nature's power on day one, seeing the Naracoorte Caves World Heritage site, housing ancient fossils dating back 50,000 years. Visit the sunken gardens of the Umpherston Sinkhole and the azure brilliance of South Australia's Blue Lake, nestled in a dormant volcano crater. There's also time for a couple of winery stop-overs in the acclaimed Coonawarra wine region.

Day two is action packed, spotting kangaroos and emu as we set off to the idyllic maritime village of Port Fairy. On to the breathtaking limestone icons of the Twelve Apostles and other highlights of the Port Campbell National Park. Enjoy a walk through the ancient timber and lush tree-ferns of the Melba Gully. Savour dinner at one of the Great Ocean Road's most impressive restaurants.

Heading towards Melbourne, continue to follow the scenic Great Ocean Road to Apollo Bay with cliff-top lighthouses and koalas clinging to treetops. Take in the roaring majesty of the legendary surf at Bells Beach.
